To be, not to seem, is to explore all things, to discover the best things: in ourselves, in others, and in life.

Every human personality possesses limitless possibilities. "Leading out" such possibilities defines individual personality. The more diverse the experiences available to the developing person, the more limitless will be the vistas to which he might aspire, the richer his enjoyment in being alive.

To be alive, to wake to the wonders around us, to respond to discoveries leads to growth: continual growth in being.

Fostering that growth, college years are a time of opportunity. For between seeming and being, there is becoming.

Here the doors are opened to us . . .

Here we stand on the threshold of learning

and discovery,

for we are students,

seekers of truth,

and truth is a light shining in the darkness.

“To talk in public,

to think in solitude,

to read,

to hear,

to inquire,

to answer inquiry

is the business of a scholar.”

Samuel Johnson.

But even scholars can be young at heart,

bright,

sunny,

*and full
life.*

Life!

For life at SJC is . . .

scientific,

industrious,

informed,

communicative,

active,

waiting on line . . .

*Life
at SJC*

is adventurous, musical,

sporting,

and exhausting!

Though we have our tense moments . . .

and we seek unity.

. . . we know our lives are intertwined with the lives of others,

What a man believes,

*he lives with

Thus, we aspire . . .

are up-and-coming . . .

. . . and while we are being guided,

we try to be guides . . .

... to be educators, giving dedicated service, bringing zest . . .

. . . and enthusiasm

to the matter at hand.

When radiance adds

touches of grace and elegance to our workaday world, life becomes more fun

To be alive is to be in step,

or the individual in the group,

to be on the move,

or deep in thought . . .

To be interested,

thoughtful,

helpful,

engrossed,

philosophic, practical . . .

. . . to be vivacious . . .

To

Educated

The functioning of the college community, faculty and student body, in the diligent quest of knowledge, and the reciprocal action of person upon person, helps to make us what we are.

Back of the beating hammer

By which the steel is wrought

ENGLISH: As one of the formative experiences of civilized life, literature forms an integral part of every student's intellectual development.

I guess this is one of those works for which you need a little of Coleridge's 'willing suspension of disbelief,' suggests Sister Grace Maria to avid English student.

Sister Alice Francis

Sister Mary Amata

Sister Ann Edmund

Dr. John A. Arnez

*Back of the workshop's clamor
The seeker may find

EDUCATION: Under the direction of Sister John Raymond, the courses in Education are intended to contribute to the cultural background of the student as well as to her professional preparation for the teaching field.

Sister Mary Beatrice

Miss Josephine Beloso

Rev. Michael J. Cantley

Sister Charles Marita

... The Thought that is ever master
 Of iron and steam
 and steel,

It sure doesn't look like tomato juice comments Sister Rose Catherine to M. Cardi.

BIOLOGY and the PHYSICAL SCIENCES:

Science courses at SJC are designed to contribute to the student's general understanding of the natures of living and non-living things as well as to further her comprehension of interrelationships among them.

The curriculum includes courses in biology, chemistry, physics and earth science.

Sister Marie Clotilde

Miss Patricia S. Coll

Sister Corde Marie

Sister M. Corde

*That rises above disaster
And tramples it under heel!*

MATHEMATICS: Courses in Mathematics aim to provide the student with an appreciation of the significance of mathematics both in itself and as a force in contemporary civilization.

Rev. John Cuff

Rev. James D'Amato

Rev. Gennaro D'Ecclesiis

Mrs. Carol Drum

Some may fret and tinker Or labor with wasted blows

PHILOSOPHY: The philosophy department seeks to introduce the student to the central themes of philosophy. She is encouraged to see philosophy as a personal activity whereby she may critically and reflectively question her experience of knowledge and value, as well as her own origin, nature and human conditions within the realm of being as a whole.

Somehow Plato impresses me as the type of person who'd frown on chewing gum, comments M. Cardi to other members of the Philosophy Club.

Sister M. Dulcissima

Mr. C. Edward Emmer

Sister Mary Florence

Sister George Aquin

As Shelley said, "There is no danger to a Man that knows!" quotes Father Hession to motivate a sophomore philosophy class.

*But back of them stands the Thinker,
The clear-eyed man who knows . . .*

Sister Grace Maria

Miss Carol J. Hayes

Rev. John Hession

Mr. Vincent J. Hobbins

*For into each plow or sower,
Each piece and part
and whole,*

PSYCHOLOGY: The psychology courses are organized to present current empirical and theoretical inquiry in the science of behavior to the liberal arts student who seeks a systematic understanding of human personality, its motivations and relations.

An English major with a Psych minor means lots of work—especially library detail, but valiant I. Mannings displays a positive outlook.

Dr. Margarete W. Hopkins

Sister Joan DeLourdes

Sister M. Joel

Sister Joseph Damien

*Must go the Brains of Labor, which gives the work
a Soul!*

No similarity can be found so great but that the dissimilarity is even greater, concludes F. Panchok, president of Theology Club.

THEOLOGY: The course in theology examines the Christian message, emphasizing its historical roots, moral foundations, philosophical principles and revealed truths. The purpose is to present Catholic truth, divine, unique and livable.

Sister Joseph Immaculate

Rt. Rev. Raymond Leonard

Sister M. Leonie

Mr. Paul R. Lilly, Jr.

*Back of the motors

FINE ARTS: Since the Arts embody some of the highest aspirations of man's spirit, the Fine Arts Departments of Art and Music seeks to introduce the student to the enjoyment of masterpieces in both art and music.

The clay's the thing as Miss Beloso guides two students of the plastic arts through the rough moments in a practical art course.

Miss Josephine Mallia

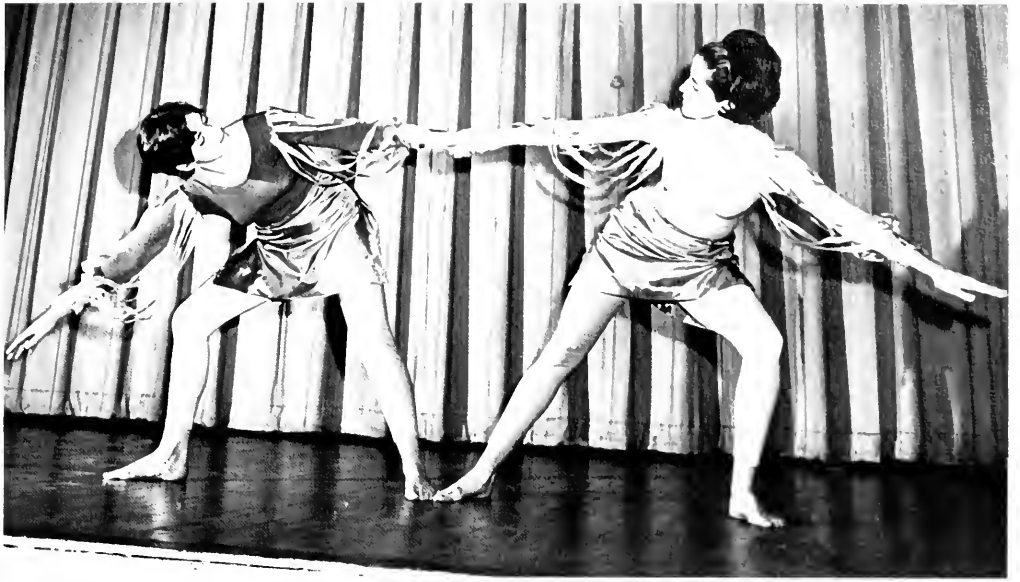

Mr. Charles W. Maloney

Sister Maria Ines

Sister Marie Laboure

PHYSICAL EDUCATION: The courses in physical education, whether from the areas of sports or modern dance, are designed to effect the student's development in the skills of coordination, accuracy, alertness, strength and endurance. In addition to these aspects of her health education, the student's general education is furthered by the Department's encouragement of social consciousness through sportsmanship, cooperation, courtesy and fellowship.

Miss Regina F. McCourt

Miss Ellen McInnis

Sister Miriam Honora

Mrs. Ann Mollica

*Back of the beats and drumming,
Back of the steady swing,*

CHILD STUDY: The courses in Child Study are designed to emphasize the psychological foundations of behavior relative to child growth, or curriculum, or guidance. Campus laboratory experiences for child study majors include directed observations and demonstrations, as well as supervised participation with children between the ages of three and six years.

Mrs. Helen Marks Morris

Sister Myra Paul

Mr. Stanley A. Nevins

Mrs. Esther Raffalli

*There is the eye which scans them
Watching through stress and strain . . .*

Those who have not studied children do not know the 'oh' of things, seems to be the sentiment of B. Martuscelo.

The accent may be on youth, but the stress is still on the teachers; so SJCers like P. Cilea want to learn their child psychology well.

MODERN LANGUAGES: The Modern Language Department aims to develop in students proficiency in understanding, speaking, reading and writing the foreign language; an interest in and an enjoyment of literary classics in the original; and an appreciation of the culture and ways of life of the foreign country. Courses are offered in French, German and Spanish.

Sister Saint Maurice

Dr. Daniel Serra-Badue

Dr. Raymond Strassburger

Sister Teresa Marie

CLASSICAL LANGUAGES: The course in Classical Languages aim to impart a knowledge and appreciation of the ancient Greek and Latin cultures which have contributed so largely to the foundations of Western civilization and whose influences perjure to the present day.

SPEECH: The purpose of speech training is to provide the student with the means for active participation in oral communication.

THE SOCIAL SCIENCES: The Department of Social Sciences consists of three divisions—sociology, economics and political science. Its aim is to develop a broad understanding of social, economic and political problems and to instill in the students an interest which may lead to constructive activity in the solution of contemporary problems in these fields.

When it comes to men, most women prefer the strong, solvent type!
is the consensus of opinion in a sophomore economics class.

Force of the engine's thrust,

Politics seems to be a matter of passing the buck or passing the dough, decides a political science student.

HISTORY: The aim of the curriculum in history is to present a general survey of civilization and a more intensive analysis of specialized fields in order that the student may acquire a deeper appreciation of the historical process, so necessary for intelligent citizenship.

Strength of the sweating toiler -

Greatly in these we trust . . .

It's Deeds not words! as J. Rock cheerfully helps a frantic student find a necessary book.

Drinking deep at the Pierian Spring, pert G. Fitzpatrick is laden down with books.

If some books are to be tasted, H. Kustowska seems to have found a real hors-d'oeuvre.

Vivacious C. Nicolosi heads for respite in one of the library's quiet corners.

My scholar must have music in her heart, so A. Francis takes advantage of our music listening room.

But back of them stands the Schemer,

The Thinker who drives things through ;

Back of the Job - the Dreamer

Who's making the Dream come true!

adapted from Berton Braley.

THE LIBRARY: Named in honor of His Excellency, Most Reverend Bryan J. McEntegart, Bishop of Brooklyn, McEntegart Hall opened for service on February 8, 1965. Four spacious reading areas, 85 individual reading units, shelves for 200,000 volumes, and a curriculum library provide an environment for excellence. In addition, McEntegart Hall contains audio visual, listening and micro-film rooms; a language laboratory, a chapel, and eight classrooms; faculty and student lounges and dining areas. The completion of the new library is the first step in a long-range plan for development.

be

Active

The theoretical and the practical merge in the activities program at St. Joseph's, providing opportunities for the student to actualize the potentialities developing the college years.

Student

Onward to new horizons with K. Berry, sparkling president of the Undergraduate Association.

Okay, who hid the thumbtacks? asks busy J. Mirenda as she discharges one of her many duties as second-in-command of U.A.

Council

The agenda for this afternoon includes . . . lots of requests for cleanup committees as A. McKenna, senior class president, begins a class meeting.

Then there was the botanist who crossed an intersection with a convertible and got a blonde, quips K. Berry for a bit of comic relief during serious council business.

Child Study Club

Who me? queries M. Malara.

I'd like to see you try it.

May I have a ride? asks P. Paladino.

M. Thornton invites Child Study Club's gilled friends to come and get it.

Recent Child Study Club Exhibit finds president H. Kearney and E. Kinsel hard at work.

Child Study Club

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick? wonders M. Anderson after helping the nursery children master the art of bike riding.

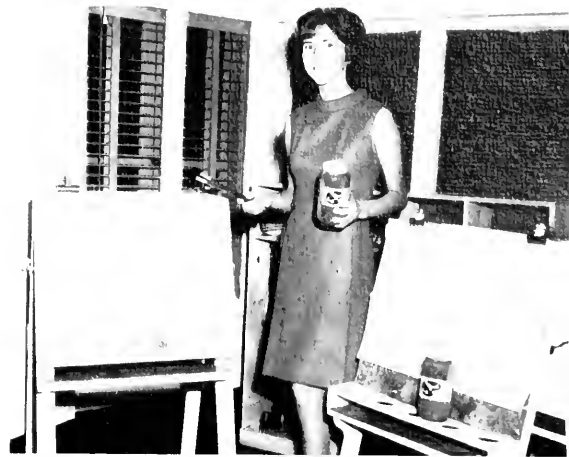

The Swinging O'Connells—Peggy, Priscilla and Pat.

R. McCarthy puts soup on in the Junior Nursery.

continued

Who would like to paint this afternoon? asks A. Allison.

Ah, to be young again, sighs P. Gordon.

Child Study Club continued

Hi, cowgirl, did you enjoy the ride, asks Sister Mary Francine.

J. Mirabile directs two nursery friends: Look casual. You're not supposed to know it's a picture.

J. Lewandowski recommends some books for the sixth grade top ten.

Would you like to try this? asks J. Basileo.

O.K. for togetherness, but this is ridiculous.

Chapel Players -

The many faces of K. Tighe produce success for Chapel Player's productions as in this scene from Aria de Cap.

in action . . .

Don't worry, my dears, everything will work out all right, K. Koppinger assures N. Rooney, B. Gregg and accomplice in The Curious Savage.

Mother, you're being childish again, bellows A. Martini to her stage mother, K. Koppinger.

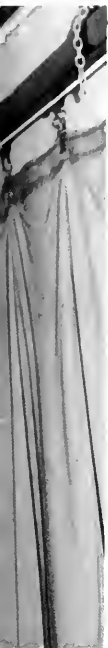

... and Backstage

Behind the scenes with N. Seiz, president of Chapel Players.

A stitch in time saves nine, as M. Zullo prepares the costumes for a Chapel Players' production.

Accuracy is essential to beauty, suggests M. Faulkner as performers prepare to go on.

Wait till the 'Head and Shoulders' people get a load of these, chuckles M. A. Annucci as she sets the scene for a production.

Modern Dance

Expression is the mystery of beauty as portrayed by M. Faulkner, president of Modern Dance Club.

*P. Needham and F. Kaiser run through a rehearsal of Ham and Eggs.*

Hail to thee, Blithe Spirits!

*They'll play their game, and we'll play ours, thinks B. Paul as Modern Dance Club and Chapel Players combine for our Golden Jubilee production, The Noah Play.*

Glee Club

And away we go. N. Moran prepares for Glee Club rehearsal.

Once more, from the top, says V. Stone to S. Peters and M. E. Merz.

Will they ever find that lost chord? wonders C. Degenarro.

We'll travel along, singing our song, side by side vocalize Glee Clubbers to a man, er, woman.

Counterpoint

Look what I found, beams J. Nevadunsky.

And they said it couldn't be done, smiles Counterpoint Editor-in-chief D. Fields.

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS, WE PRINT is the motto of Counterpoint staffers: J. Nevadunsky, E. Thompson, S. Damiani, M. A. O'Boyle, V. Kilmartin, R. Picciarelli, T. Bartaloma, C. Giangreco and A. Martini.

Now what would Joseph Pulitzer have to say about this? ask J. Panarace and E. Degenhardt of their Counterpoint co-workers.

Speed's checked by radar when page editor J. Vahey is at the keys.

Jeanne Valois Guild

A moment of laughter is shared by Sister St. Francis and C. Ryan, president of Jeanne Valois Guild.

Art Club

Portrait of a Young Artist. M. Benedetti, president of Art Club, dabs at her canvas.

International Relations Club

Would you believe, Zorro?, inquires M. O'Boyle, president of I.R.C.

Sacristans

T. Perrone cheerfully goes about her task of sacristan before daily Mass.

Literary Society

Ready to relax with a good book, R. McGrath, Literary Society president puts on a happy face.

Our own university wits—J. Marchetta, R. Shanley, K. McCarten, and I. Mannings talk it over with Sister Joseph Immaculate, moderator of Literary Society.

Spanish Club

Buones Natales!

If you look closely . . . says M. Manti illustrating a lecture for Spanish Club.

Yes, I believe so agrees Mrs. Raffalli, moderator of Spanish Club.

N.F.C.C.S.

I wonder . . . ponders A. Schneller.

Do you expect me to believe that story?, asks H. Hanley.

Exam Committee

Debate Club

Must we debate the issue now? jests J. Olexson, Debate Club president.

J. Miscione helps SJC's debaters by travelling the rocky road of research.

Speakers' Committee

The Speaker's Committee, headed by L. Belvedere, helps keep SJC students aware.

And I thought I had troubles, sighs J. Farrell, as she views one conversation piece studied by Science Club.

Science Club

It's wonderful what you can do with scotch tape and a little imagination, comments D. Gangi to J. Olexson at the Math Club's Polyhedra Exhibit.

Math Club

Come all ye faithful—and you dissenters too!, seems to be the hope of M. McEnroe, Religion Committee Chairman.

Religion Committee

Books can open up a whole new world to you, invites Religion Committee member M. B. O'Neill.

*Open House
Club*

What do you mean you hate green crepe paper?. asks M. L. Valetta, Open House Club president.

Tell me more is expressed in the face of one of our guests.

Why don't we get together on this? thinks J. Sullivan as Arthur Murray graduate swings.

It's easy, once you get the hang of it.

The tired and the weary relax by the sidelines.

Whom do you trust? Sister Rose Catherine lends a watchful eye to an Open House Dance.

French Club

Did you ever hear of the frolic fairies dear? utters G. Bertolotti, president of French Club.

Follow that ghost! warbles Scrooge. K. Koppinger.

Vice-president M. A. Murray, one of French Club's moving spirits, here portrays the Spirit of Christmas Present.

It must be here somewhere, mumbles K. Koppinger.

Je porte beaucoup de poids, warns B. Terlecki with a weighty glance.

Basketball is a game of hope.

Varsity

... a game of chance.

... A game of skill.

... a game of sportsmanship.

Cheerleaders

We would rather fight than switch, warn J. Wenziger and M. Courtney.

The girls behind the team prepare to cheer for victory.

About face. Cheerleaders continue to inspire the team.

The ship is anchored safe and sound, its voyage closed and done, and editor G. Bertolotti breathes a sigh of relief.

Footprints '67

We always seem to have too much month at the end of our money, notes K. Vasile, co-business manager of FP '67.

That's because our bank account is here today and drawn tomorrow, concludes R. Wanniski, the other half of our impecunious twosome.

"Perhaps just a little more symmetry and not so much desperation," suggests faculty advisor Sister Teresa Marie.

Shall we show it to the consultant or mess it up ourselves? wonder M. Salerno, L. Santoro, and R. Wanniski during an indecisive moment.

The first in the order of intention is the last in the order of execution, realize the frantic five at deadline time: K. Vasile, M. Salerno, R. A. Quinn, R. Wanniski, L. Santoro.

Part-time dental assistant, H. Zillich, like most SJC students, is a working girl in addition to being a thinking girl.

And there are other . . .

Winsome commuters A. M. Graziano and M. Ferrara share a typical moment in the lives of SJCers: waiting for the DeKalb Avenue bus!

"To be alive at such a time!" seem to be the sentiments of R. Wanniski and escort.

"This I beheld or dreamed it in a dream." Edward Rowland Sill.

*The

A. Sciulla and escort climb the stairs that will lead them to the top of the Hotel Pierre.

Among the beautiful treasures
That lie in memories chest
The moonlight thought of a lovely night Stands as one of the best.

... night of cloudless climes and starry skies.

M. Casazone, prom chairman, and escort welcome the chaperones to the Junior Prom: Mrs. McGlinchey, Mr. and Mrs. Mullaney, Mr. and Mrs. Drum and Mr. McGlinchey.

*How laboriously you came

How odd you looked on the road

For they were brought with love . . .*

December is when people come in different sizes—none of which you know philosophizes M. Palko as the Christmas spirit fills the campus.

Hark when herald angels sing, for next month our exams will bring! remembers M. O'Neill in the midst of Christmas preparations.

*. . . Dear cousins, pray for me, for His sake
Who did not reject your curious gifts
Pray always for all the learned
The oblique, the delicate
Let them not be quite forgotten
At the throne of God
When the simple come into their kingdom.*

adapted from a poem by Evelyn Waugh

The College choir sing out under the direction of Father D'Ecclesius at the Golden Jubilee Mass composed by Father for the closing celebration of the college's fiftieth anniversary year.

Golden Jubilee Mass

College President, Sister Vincent Therese, preceded by the president and vice-president of the student's Undergraduate Association lead the college community into the Church.

Eternities are linked to the moment as friends and members of the college join together for a double celebration: a new Mass and the beginning of the second fifty years of education at SJC.

Thus out of small beginnings,

greater things have been produced by his hand that made all things of nothing, and gives being to all things that are.

And as one small candle may light a thousand, so the light here kindled hath shone unto many.
